THE REPUBLICAN, to go the farthest from Phoenix, is sent to Col. H. E. Bayley, very attractive. The Republican is a of the 30th National Infantry, stationed as Belgaum, Bombey, India. Col. Bayley is a brother of Mr. S. W. Bayley of this city, and the latter desirous of showing him what we had here sends the REPUBLICAN as his silent messenger.

No place in the country, of like population, has as many neat and elegant teams and turn-outs as Phoenix. A grand boulevard kept in good condition, with a good road house at the other end of it, so as to give several miles of a drive and a rest half way, would be a benefit to the city. The public streets are not calculated to develop speed or to encourage driving.

THE Governor has made several changes in the Territorial Board of ing paper at Phoenix, Arizona. The Equalization, W. C. Bashford, of Prescott, has been appointed, vice W. S. Head, resigned, and A. J. Doran, of Florence, vice E. M. Mills appointed Deputy United States Marshal, Mr. Bashford is the Chairman of the Republican Central Committee of Yavapai county, and one of the foremost business men of Prescott. Mr. Doran is a Republican of Pinal county and prominently identified with the development of the resources of the Territory.

The Poince of Arizona are familiar with the wonderful growth of California in the last ten years and many have with the wonderful growth of California in the last ten years and many have wellows about it when we consider the means used to produce it. On every possible occasion California has taken advantage of the opportunities to advertise herself. At the various expositions in the eastern cities, at Grand Lodge meetings, at political conventions, California has sent her delegations in special cars loaded with the products of her orchards and vineyards, and in addition to the good things served their guests to eat and drink, they supplied them with tons of advertising matter setting forth in glorious germs the beauties of a residence in the Golden State. Thousands of dollars has been spent in this way, yet the goole of California propose to continue in this work and spend many thousands has rich fruit-growing land as does her neighbor to the west.
